DAY 01: DELHI ARRIVAL TRANSFER – AFTERNOON SIGHTSEEING

On arrival at Delhi airport, our representative will meet and you will be transferred to HOTEL for 01 night. Delhi is the capital city of India and is regarded as the heart of the nation. The city is popular for its enriched culture and heritage. The city hosts some famous historical monuments and is developing with the passing of time. The influence of religious diversity can be seen in the city along with the cultural impact of the Mughal, the ancient Indian and the British. There are many beautiful gardens in the city, away from pollution and busy city life that provide opportunities to walk leisurely in the midst of greenery. The capital city is divided into two sections popularly known as Purani Dilli or Old Delhi and Nayi Dilli or New Delhi.

After noon proceed for sightseeing of Old & New Delhi which includes Raj Ghat - a simple memorial to Mahatma Gandhi, Jama Masjid by walk, India Gate - this 42ms high stone of triumph is a war memorial. It bears the names of 85,000 Indian army soldiers, who died in the campaigns of WW I. Rashtrapati Bhawan - This palace-like building is the official residence of the President of India and an interesting blend of Mughal and western architectural styles. Qutab Minar - The highest monument of India, Qutb Minar is 72.5 m high, tapering from 2.75 m in diameter at its peak to 14.32 m at its base and alternating angular and rounded flutings. Humayun's Tomb, is mausoleum of the Mughal emperor Humayun. Bahai Temple or the Lotus Temple is a marvel of modern architecture. Set among pools and gardens, adherents of any faith can visit, pray or meditate. Overnight at Hotel.

DAY 02: DELHI – AGRA – VISIT AGRA FORT After breakfast check out and drive to the city of Love - Agra which was the capital of Mughal Empire for a long time. Agra is the quintessential Mughal City, where the world marvels at the epitome of love, beauty and sacrifice. It is located on the western banks of the river Yamuna. Right from the epic Mahabharata to the Mughal Dynasty, Agra has been monumental and has played a significant role in shaping India's history. This place was the capital of the great Akbar. Thus, there are a lot of architectural marvels to enjoy here that are related to Persian style. The iconic tourism destination is the world wonder, Taj Mahal. Apart from this, you can find tombs of various kinds, religious places, Yamuna River and water related activities in the river. It is a colourful place and still has the colourful medieval look. The narrow lanes, modern era hustle and local amusement would attract the visitors. On arrival check in at HOTEL for 01 night. Afternoon visit the Agra Fort. Overnight in Hotel.

DAY 03: Agra – TAJ MAHAL VISIT - BHARATPUR Early morning visit the sunrise view of the famous Mausoleum – The Taj Mahal, a unique epitome of Love built by Mughal Emperor Shahjahan in 1630 for his queen Mumtaz Mahal to enshrine her mortal remains. A drop of tear on the cheek of time has now been crystallized !!! After exploring the beauty of Taj Mahal transfer to hotel for breakfast. After breakfast check out and drive to Bharatpur. On arrival check in at hotel for 01 night. Also known as the “Eastern Gate of Rajasthan”, Bharatpur is a paradise for bird-lovers. This off-beat destination is also home to the UNESCO World Heritage Site, Keoladeo National Park. Rest of the day free to relax. Overnight in Hotel.

Day 04: BHARATPUR BIRD SANCTUARY VISIT - RANTHAMBHORE After breakfast proceed to visit Bharatpur National Park (now known as the Keoladeo National Park). Bharatpur National Park is a famous avifauna sanctuary and a bird watching paradise listed among UNESCO’s World Heritage sites. The 29 km reserve is locally known as Ghana and is a mosaic of dry grasslands, woodlands, woodland swamps, and wetlands. These diverse habitats are home to 366 bird species, 379 floral species, 50 species of fish, 13 species of snakes, 5 species of lizards, 7 amphibian species, 7 turtle species, and a variety of other invertebrates. Every year thousands of migratory waterfowl visit the park for winter breeding. The sanctuary is one of the richest bird areas in the world. It is a human-made establishment known for nesting of its resident birds and visiting migratory birds including water birds. What is interesting note is that this place was once the waterfowl hunting ground for the royalty and the British, but was converted into an asylum for birds and other wildlife as well in the year 1971. Located amidst a semi-arid terrain, the park is an oasis of artificially maintained marshes, tropical and deciduous forests, grasslands and shrubs. While it is mostly famous for birds, it also houses a rich variety of other animals such as 27 mammalian species, 43 types of fish, various reptiles and larger animals. Some of the birds here include Cranes, Pelicans, Geese, Ducks, Eagles, Hawks, Shanks, Stints, Wagtails, Warblers, Wheatears, Flycatchers, Buntings, Larks and Pipits. On the other hand, vegetation here includes jamun, babul, kadam, babul, ber, kair, piloo and kandi.

After the sanctuary visit, proceed to Ranthambore. On arrival check in at HOTEL for 02 nights. Overnight at hotel.

Day 05: RANTHAMBHORE NATIONAL PARK VISIT

Early in the morning, visit Ranthambhore National Park. Ranthambhore National Park is one of the biggest and most renowned national parks in Northern India. The park is located in the Sawai Madhopur district of southeastern Rajasthan, which is about 130 km from Jaipur. It was established in 1981 and covers an area of approximately 1,334 square kilometers. The park is known for its large population of Bengal tigers, as well as other wildlife such as leopards, sloth bears, and several species of deer and birds. Surrounded by Aravali and Vindhya Range and enjoy Wildlife Safari where you can view closer view of animals like Leopards, Hyenas, Sambar, Jackals and Tigers.

Once considered as one of the famous and former hunting grounds of the Maharajas of Jaipur, today the Ranthambore National Park terrain is a major wildlife tourist attraction that has drawn the attention of many wildlife photographers and lovers.

After the park visit proceed to visit Ranthambhore Fort, located at the hilltop. One of the ancient forts in India, the Ranthambhore Fort is declared as the UNESCO world heritage site due to its historical significance. The fort is located inside the Ranthambhore National Park, at the distance of 13 km from the Sawai Madhopur railway station. This heritage fort is said to be built in 944 AD and has witnessed the long history of Rajasthan. The epitome of valor and pride of the Rajput rulers of the various Kingdoms, the Ranthambhore Fort was the strategic fort and thus captured by various rulers. At the time of the Independence of India and the abolition of the imperial era, the fort was under the Maharaja of Jaipur and the Ranthambhore forest was the exclusive hunting ground for the Royals of Jaipur Kingdom. After the fort visit return back to the hotel. Overnight at hotel.

Day 06: RANTHAMBHORE – SARISKA After breakfast check out and drive to Sariska, which was the hunting reserve for the royal family of Alwar. After Independence, when the control of the forest was vested with the government, the Sariska area was first notified as a Wildlife Reserve in 1955, then a Wildlife Sanctuary in 1958; it came under Project Tiger as Sariska Tiger Reserve in 1979. Sariska National Park, one of the most famous tiger reserves in Rajasthan, surrounded by the Aravalli Hills, stretches across more than 800 square kilometers. The best way of exploring the rich wildlife of Sariska Tiger Reserve is of course, with a jeep safari. Spotting the Royal Bengal Tiger in its natural habitat during your wildlife safari is a thrilling experience which you will cherish for a long time. On arrival check in at HOTEL for 01 night. Rest of the day free to relax. Overnight at hotel.

Day 07: SARISKA SIGHTSEEING – JAIPUR Day will begin with the exotic jungle safari at Sariska. The options that can be exercised for Jungle Safari are Open Jeep or canters. You will witness the most exotic wildlife variety in their best of actions that can also become camera shot for the lifetime. Sariska Tiger Reserve is a national park where you will find a perfect intermingling of nature. It contains mountains, grasslands, dry deciduous forests and cliffs which span over 800 square kilometres. Situated in Alwar, the Tiger Reserve is nestled in the lap of Aravali hills. Currently home to numerous animals apart from tigers, the reserve showcases nature in its best form. Animals like jungle cats, rhesus macaque, sambhar, chital, wild boar, etc., are found here. Not only animals, you get to see a number of bird species, such as sand grouse, harbor quails, crested serpent eagles, etc. here as well.

After safari, drive to the pink city – Jaipur. On arrival check in at Hotel for 02 nights. Overnight in hotel.

Day 08: ELEPHANT RIDE AT AMBER FORT & JAIPUR SIGHTSEEING

After breakfast by around 0730 hours proceed to visit the Amber Fort, located 11 kilometers away from Jaipur and is the ancient capital of the state until 1728. En-route, visit the Hawa Mahal. Amber was the ancient capital of Kachawaha dynasty before Jai Singh founded Jaipur. There you will enjoy Elephant ride up to the hill. The other highlights of the sightseeing tour of the day are Maharaja's City Palace, Jagmandir or the hall of victory, Shri Govind Deo Temple and the City Palace Museum; the observatory known as Jantar Mantar with masonry astronomical instruments; and Hawa Mahal known as 'Palace of Winds' with its honeycomb façade. Also you can visit the Temple of Goddess Kali, but no leather belt, leather purses and cameras are not allowed inside the temple. In the evening drive through the new city of Jaipur and visit Laxmi Narayan Mandir - a Hindu temple built in white marble. Evening free to relax or go for shopping in the colourful bazaars of Jaipur. Overnight at Hotel.

Day 09: JAIPUR – DELHI – CYCLE RICKSHAW RIDE - SHOPPING

After breakfast check out and drive back to Delhi. On arrival check in at HOTEL for 01 night. Afternoon proceed for the Cycle Rickshaw Ride. Explore Delhi in the most unique way with its popular "Delhi Cycle Rickshaw Ride". From the modern structures to Mughal monuments, everything you want to see can be seen and experienced in the most exciting way with Cycle Rickshaw Ride. All you have to do is hire a rickshaw which is very easily available all across Old Delhi. In this ride you will be taken in the cycle rickshaw through the sights of old Delhi. You will pass through narrow lanes of Chandini Chowk Bazaar making your way to enjoy and admire the beautiful monuments like Red Fort and Jama Masjid. Later free for shopping. Overnight at Hotel.
